Mother's Day Weekend Concert and 3 Day Festival Returns to Taos

(Taos, NM) LMNOC Broadcasting presents its 16th annual Mother's Day Music Festival held this year on May 12-14 at Kit Carson Park. The event is free and open to the public. Festival goers must have a wristband to enter and they can be picked up at Metro PCS in Taos or Metro PCS and Cooks Home Center in Espanola, as well as Chavez Southwest Market in Antonito, Colorado.

Twenty performers are on the lineup for this three-day family event that serves to honor mothers through music and dance. The live performances will feature a diverse variety of music, including New Mexico-style, Tejano, classic rock and country, in order to appeal to the many different kinds of mothers that will be in the audience.

"We are very excited about the music lineup at this year's Mother's Day Festival," said Karina Armijo, director of marketing and tourism for the Town of Taos. "After 16 years, the Festival has become quite a tradition for families and music-lovers in Northern New Mexico and we are looking forward to seeing even more people come out this year to celebrate their moms. It will kick off a great summer of music in Taos!"

More about the Town of Taos...

Located just 135 miles from Albuquerque's International Sunport and a short, 90-minute drive from Santa Fe, Taos is home to the country's oldest continuously- inhabited pueblo community, the newest national monument, and the highest peak in New Mexico. World-class skiing, hiking, camping, whitewater rafting, kayaking, fishing, and mountain biking can all be found nearby. Motorists enjoy the region's celebrated scenic drives, including the Enchanted Circle and the High Road from Santa Fe to Taos. The area also boasts ample four-wheeling and off road trails that crisscross the backcountry. Golf Digest's four-star-rated Taos Country Club championship golf course offers players spectacular scenery and panoramic mountain views. Other hidden Taos travel gems include cultural sites like the San Francisco de Asis Church, the downtown plaza, "El Corazon de Taos," as well as museums and galleries, weekend music and art festivals, and even llama trekking adventures. Finally, most Taos travelers find that their getaways are not complete without indulging in the local New Mexico cuisine and its famous red and green chile options that infiltrate everything from breakfast burritos to pizza.
